

To comply with the CPA standards it has been agreed that electronic data is acceptable on the understanding that it is available to all relevant parties. CPA Central Office and the assessors will accept documentation in electronic format rather than paper copies. At assessment there must be appropriate access for all assessors including PC and printing facilities.