

CPA assessors are sometimes required to assess GUM clinics as part of the application for accreditation. It has been agreed that GUM Clinics should be assessed in a similar way to other Point of Care Testing facilities.

The use of a nurse for interpretative work will not necessarily be inappropriate providing adequate training has been given and support is available. It should be noted that the same would not apply for a non state registered MLA.